An Act to make provision for local government and for connected purposes

Commencement: 11 June 1984

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Local Government Act 1984.

2. Interpretation

(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

'basic rate' means the rate defined and imposed under section 77(1)(a);

'clerk to a council' means any person appointed as such under Part IX;

'cognisable offence' shall have the same meaning as in section 2 of the Criminal Procedure Code;

'committee' means a committee appointed under the provision of section 32 and shall include a committee appointed under section 33 and any sub-committee;

'council' means a local government council established under section 3;

'elected member' means a member of a council elected in accordance with section 6;¹

'nominated member' means a member of a council appointed in accordance with section 7 or 8 by an association recognised by the Council²;

'person resident' means, in relation to the area of authority of any council, a person residing for the time being in such area;³

'rate' includes any rate, tax, duty, toll⁴, due or assessment of whatever description whether public, general or local, and whether uniform or not;

'resolution' means a resolution of the council duly passed, recorded and entered in the minutes in accordance with section 26;

'Special Member' means a member of a council nominated by the Te Botaki ni Unimaane;⁵

¹ Definition of 'executive officer' repealed by s.2(a)(i), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

² The words "by an association recognised by the Council" inserted by s.2(a)(ii), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

³ Definition of 'person resident' substituted by s.2(a)(iii), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

⁴ Quaere: perhaps this should be 'toll'

⁵ Definition of 'Special Member' inserted by s.2, Local Government (Amendment) Act 1995

'Te Botaki ni Unimaane' means an association, group or body of elderly men recognised by the council as representing the people of the island within which the area of authority of such council lies;⁶

'Tibi Kauntira' shall include the Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira and in sections 24, 25 and 31 shall include any other person presiding at any meeting of a council;⁷

'town council' means a council established in respect of an area described as a town in the warrant establishing the council;

'urban council' means a council established in respect of an area described as an urban area in the warrant establishing the council;

'waters adjacent' means, notwithstanding the provisions of the Fisheries Ordinance and the Maritime Zones Declaration Act, the lagoon and/or parts of the sea having as its inner limits the low-water line, as defined under the Marine Zones Declaration Act, and extending 3 nautical miles seaward, but, where two or more councils have their adjacent waters overlapping, an agreement shall be reached to determine the extent of their adjacent waters, failing that the Minister shall so determine.⁸

- (2) For the purposes of this Act a person shall not be treated as holding, or acting in, a public office if he is on leave of absence pending relinquishment of a public office, or by reason only that he—
- (a) is receiving a pension or other like allowance for public service; or
 - (b) holds or is acting in any office or place of profit in the gift or disposal of any council or of any board.⁹

PART II—ESTABLISHMENT OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT COUNCILS

3. Establishment of councils

The Minister acting in accordance with the advice of Cabinet and after consultation with such persons who are and over 18 years of age and resident within the area of authority of such councils as are to be established, may by warrant under his hand establish such councils as he may deem necessary or expedient for the purposes of local government and may at any time by order amend, vary or cancel any such warrant.

4. Contents of warrant

- (1) A warrant establishing a council shall—
- (a) specify the name of the council and the date it shall be established;
 - (b) prescribe the device of the seal of the council;

⁶ Definition of 'Te Botaki ni Unimaane' inserted by s.2, Local Government (Amendment) Act 1995

⁷ Replacing definition of 'president', s.2, Local Government (Amendment) Act 1994

⁸ Definition of 'waters adjacent' inserted by s.2(a)(iv), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

⁹ Amended by s.2(b), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, which repealed the original paragraph (b) (which read: "is receiving any remuneration or allowance as Beretitenti, Kauoman-ni-Beretitenti, Attorney-General, Speaker, or a member of the Maneaba ni Maungatabu; or") and renumbered paragraph (c) as paragraph (b)

- (c) define the limits of the area of the authority of the council, and such area shall, unless otherwise specified in the warrant, include the Kiribati waters adjacent to it;
 - (d) provide for the number of elected members; and
 - (e) specify the functions of the council.
- (2) A warrant establishing a council may—
- (a) provide for the use of a rubber stamp in lieu of a seal until such time as a seal can be procured;
 - (b) generally make such other provision not inconsistent with this Act as the Minister may deem necessary or expedient for the establishment and conduct of the council and the proper performance of its functions.

5. Incorporation of councils

Every council established under this Act shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal and shall be capable in law of suing and being sued and of requiring, holding and disposing of movable and immovable property.

PART III—COMPOSITION OF COUNCILS AND ELECTIONS

6. Election of elected members

All elected members of a council shall be elected by registered electors whose names appear on the register of electors for any ward of an electoral district constituted by the provisions of the Elections Ordinance 1977 which lies within the area of authority of the council.¹⁰

7. Ex-officio and nominated members of town and urban councils

In the case of a town or urban council—

- (a) every elected member of the Maneaba ni Maungatabu for an electoral district the whole or part of which lies within the area of authority of the council shall be a member of the council ex-officio;
- (b) every special member shall become a member of the council;¹¹
- (c) the council may by resolution appoint such persons as it considers suitable to be members of the council but the number of such nominated members shall in no case exceed one third of the number of elected members.¹²

¹⁰ Amended by s.3, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, which inserted the words “authority of”

¹¹ New paragraph (b) inserted by s.3(i), Local Government (Amendment) Act 1995

¹² Original paragraph (b) renumbered as paragraph (c) by s.3(ii), Local Government (Amendment) Act 1995

8. Ex-officio and nominated members of other councils

In the case of every council other than a town or urban council—

- (a) every elected member of the Maneaba ni Maungatabu for an electoral district the whole or part of which lies within the area of authority of the council shall be a member of the council ex-officio;
- (b) every special member shall become a member of the council;¹³
- (c) the council may by resolution appoint such persons as it considers suitable to be members of the council,¹⁴

but in any case the number of ex-officio and nominated members together shall in no case exceed one third of the number of elected members.

9. Qualifications and disqualifications for members of elected councils

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a person shall be qualified for election as a member of a council if—
 - (a) he has been registered as an elector; and
 - (b) he has attained 21 years of age.¹⁵
- (2) A person shall be disqualified for election as a member of a council who—
 - (a) is a public officer and has not received the written authority of the Minister to stand for election; and
 - (b) has within 2 years before the date of the election been surcharged under section 69 to an amount exceeding $200; or
 - (c) is disqualified from registering as an elector or from voting by virtue of the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 8(1) of the Elections Ordinance 1977; or
 - (d) has been previously convicted and sentenced to a period of or not exceeding 12 months' imprisonment;
 - (e) is in lawful detention by reason of having been certified to be insane or otherwise adjudged to be of unsound mind under any law in force in Kiribati; and
 - (f) is disqualified for membership of a council by any law for the time being in force Kiribati relating to offences connected with elections.¹⁶

¹³ New paragraph (b) inserted by s.4(i), Local Government (Amendment) Act 1995

¹⁴ Original paragraph (b) renumbered as paragraph (c) by s.4(ii), Local Government (Amendment) Act 1995

¹⁵ Amended by s.4(a), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, which substituted subsection (1)

¹⁶ Amended by s.4(b), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, which:

- repealed the original paragraphs (b) and (c) (which read: "(b) unless authorised in writing by the Minister to stand for election, holds or is acting in any office in the gift or disposal of the council or a board; or (c) is an undischarged bankrupt, having been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law in force in any part of the Commonwealth; or");
- renumbered the original paragraphs (d) and (e) as (b) and (c) respectively;
- substituted the figure "2" for "5" in paragraph (b) (formerly paragraph (d)); and
- inserted new paragraphs (d) and (e)

- (3) No ex-officio member of a council referred to in sections 7 and 8 of this Act shall under any circumstances whatsoever contest for election to a council.¹⁷

10. Term of office of elected members of councils

- (1) The term of office of the elected members of a council shall be 4 years¹⁸ from the date of election.¹⁹
- (2) No person shall be elected to be a member of a council without his consent.²⁰

11. Tenure of office of elected members of councils

- (1) Every elected member of a council shall, without prejudice to his re-election in accordance with this Act, cease to be a member of the council at the expiration of his term of office under section 10, or previously thereto if his seat becomes vacant under the provisions of this Act.
- (2) The seat of an elected member of a council shall become vacant if—
- (a) by writing addressed to the Tibi Kauntira of the council he resigns his seat; or
 - (b) he fails to attend 3 consecutive meetings of the council, or 3 consecutive meetings of any committee of the council, without having obtained before the termination of any such meeting the permission of the council, or, in the case of the meeting of any such committee, the permission of the council or of such committee, to be, or to remain, absent therefrom;
 - (c) not having the authority in writing of the Minister to retain his seat, he is appointed to, or to act in, any public office;
 - (d) not having the authority in writing of the Minister to retain his seat, he is appointed to, or to act in, any office or place of profit in the gift or disposal of the council or a board;
 - (e) any circumstances arise that if he were not a member of the council would cause him to be disqualified for election as such by virtue of paragraphs (c), (d), (e) or (f) of section 9(2); or
 - (f) if he vacates his seat pursuant to section 11A of this Act.²¹
- (3) Any person whose seat as an elected member of a council has become vacant may, if qualified, again be elected as a member of a council from time to time.

¹⁷ This subsection (originally subsection (4)) inserted by s.2(a), Local Government (Amendment) Act 1987; then renumbered as subsection (3) by s.4(d), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, following repeal of the original subsection (3) by s.4(c) of that Act

¹⁸ Term of office increased from three to four years by s.2, Local Government (Amendment) Act 1992

¹⁹ Amended by s.5(a), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, which repealed the words " unless otherwise provided in this Act or in the warrant establishing the council; and such warrant may in particular provide for the retirement annually of one-quarter of the elected members of the council"

²⁰ Amended by s.5(b) and (c), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, which repealed the original subsection (2) (which read: "Any person retiring under the provisions of subsection (1) may, if qualified, seek re-election for a further term of office.") and renumbered subsection (3) as subsection (2)

²¹ Paragraph (f) inserted by s.2, Local Government (Amendment) Act 1989

11A. Vacation of seat after petition and referendum²²

- (1) A petition may be presented to the Chief Electoral Officer calling for the removal of an elected member of a council signed by a majority of the persons who are qualified as electors under the Elections Ordinance in the electoral ward from which that member was last elected.
- (2) The Chief Electoral Officer shall as soon as practicable after receipt of a petition under the preceding subsection, conduct a referendum to determine whether the member named in the petition should vacate his seat in the Council.
- (3) No person shall be entitled to vote in a referendum under this section unless he is qualified as an elector under the Elections Ordinance in the electoral ward from which the member was last elected.
- (4) If in a referendum under this section a majority of those entitled to vote in that referendum vote for the removal from the Council of the member named in the petition, that member shall vacate his seat.
- (5) Where a member vacates his seat in the council under the preceding subsection, a by-election shall be held within 3 months to fill that seat in the council.
- (6) No action shall be taken on a petition delivered to the Chief Electoral Officer under this section until the expiration of three months following—
 - (a) the last occasion on which the member named in the petition was elected to the council; or
 - (b) the date of any referendum held under this section which determined that the member named in the petition was not required to vacate his seat in the council under subsection (4) of this section.

12. Tenure of office of nominated members of council

- (1) Every nominated member of a council shall, without prejudice to his re-appointment in accordance with this Act, cease to be a member of the council on the revocation of his appointment by the council by resolution or at such time as may be specified in the notice by which he was appointed or previously thereto if his seat becomes vacant under the provisions of this Act.
- (2) The seat of a nominated member of a council shall become vacant—
 - (a) if by writing addressed to the Tibi Kauntira of the council he resigns his seat;
 - (b) if he accepts nomination as a candidate for election to the council;
 - (c) if he fails to attend 2 consecutive meetings without permission of the council.²³
- (3) Any person whose seat as a nominated member in a council has become vacant may again be appointed as a member of a council from time to time.

²² Section 11A inserted by s.3, Local Government (Amendment) Act 1989

²³ Paragraph (c) inserted by s.6, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

- (4) The council by resolution may at any time revoke the appointment of a nominated member of a council.

12A. Tenure of office of a special member²⁴

- (1) Every special member shall cease to be a member of the Council—
- (a) upon the revocation of his nomination by Te Botaki ni Unimaane;
 - (b) if by writing addressed to Te Botaki ni Unimaane and the Tibi Kauntira he resigns his seat; or
 - (c) if he accepts nomination as a candidate for election to the Council.
- (2) Any person whose seat as a special member in a council has become vacant may again be nominated as a member of a council from time to time.

13. Decision on questions as to membership

*[repealed]*²⁵

14. Filling of vacancies of elected members

- (1) Where a vacancy has occurred among the elected members of a council, a new member to fill such vacancy may be elected in the same manner as the person whose place he is to take was elected.
- (2) A person elected under this section to fill a vacancy shall hold office until the date upon which the person in whose place he is elected would ordinarily have retired and he shall then retire.

15. Tibi Kauntira²⁶

- (1) Every council shall have a Tibi Kauntira.
- (2) Nomination for and election to the office of the Tibi Kauntira shall be conducted in accordance with this section.
- (3) Subject to this section, the provisions of the Elections Ordinance and any regulations made thereunder shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to an election to the office of Tibi Kauntira as if the election were an election conducted in accordance with the Ordinance and the regulations for the election of one member of a council.
- (4) (a) As soon as practicable after the election of a Council, the Electoral Officer for the electoral district in which the Council is located shall call for nominations, from among the elected members, of candidates for election as Tibi Kauntira.
- (b) Nominations may only be received from the candidates themselves, and the provisions of sections 12 and 13 of the Elections Ordinance (which deal with the nomination of candidates and the validity of nominations respectively) shall not apply to an election to the office of Tibi Kauntira.

²⁴ Section 12A inserted by s.5, Local Government (Amendment) Act 1995

²⁵ Section 13 (which read: "Subject to this Act and the Elections Ordinance 1977 all questions which may arise as to the right of any person to be or remain a member of a council shall be referred to and determined by the Minister whose decision shall be final.") repealed by s.7, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

²⁶ This section substituted for the original section 15 by s.8, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

- (5) Every person who is entitled to vote in the election for the Council shall be entitled to vote in the election of the Tibi Kauntira.
- (6) A person elected to the office of Tibi Kauntira under this section shall assume office on the day upon which he is declared elected.
- (7) The Tibi Kauntira, unless he ceases to be Tibi Kauntira by virtue of subsection (8), shall continue in office until the Council is dissolved.
- (8) The Tibi Kauntira shall cease to be Tibi Kauntira—
 - (a) if he resigns his office in writing addressed to the Minister;
 - (b) following passage of a motion of no confidence in the Tibi Kauntira under section 16A; or
 - (c) if he ceases to be an elected member of the Council.
- (9) Subject to subsection (10), where the office of Tibi Kauntira falls vacant a new Tibi Kauntira shall be elected in the manner provided for under subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6).
- (10) Notwithstanding section 16(2)(d), where the office of Tibi Kauntira falls vacant during the period of six months before the day on which the Council will stand dissolved under section 17A, the Minister may, after consultation with the remaining members of the Council, direct that the Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira shall assume the office of Tibi Kauntira, who may in turn appoint a Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira from among the elected members until such time as the Council is dissolved.
- (11) A Tibi Kauntira shall, if qualified, be eligible for re-election.²⁷

²⁷ Original text of section 15 read as follows:

“15. Tibi Kauntira of Councils

- (1) Every council shall have an elected Tibi Kauntira and an elected Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira.
- (2) The Tibi Kauntira and Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira shall be—
 - (a) elected by the council by secret ballot from among the elected members;
 - (b) elected for a term of office for such period as the council may determine in accordance with the standing orders made under section 29 of this Act but no such period shall exceed 3 years nor be less than 2 years;
 - (c) elected for a term of office for a period of 2 years where no standing orders are made under section 29 providing for the period referred to in section 15 (2)(b) of this Act; and
 - (d) eligible for re-election.
- (3) No candidate for the office of the Tibi Kauntira and Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira shall preside over the election for which he is a candidate.
- (4) No person shall be elected Tibi Kauntira or Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira without his consent to be re-elected.
- (5) A Tibi Kauntira or Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira of a council at any time during his term of office may resign or may be removed by resolution of not less than two thirds of all the members of the council.”

16. Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira²⁸

- (1) Every Council shall have a Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira, who shall be appointed by the Tibi Kauntira from among the elected members of the Council.
- (2) The Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira shall cease to be Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira—
 - (a) if he resigns his office, by notice in writing addressed to the Tibi Kauntira;
 - (b) if he ceases to be an elected member of the Council;
 - (c) if he is removed from office by the Tibi Kauntira; or
 - (d) when the Tibi Kauntira who appointed him ceases to hold office.²⁹

16A. Motions of no confidence³⁰

- (1) Subject to this section, where a motion of no confidence in the Tibi Kauntira is supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of all of the elected members of the Council the Tibi Kauntira shall cease to be Tibi Kauntira.
- (2) A motion of no confidence in the Tibi Kauntira shall not be moved—
 - (a) during the period of eighteen months commencing on the day on which the Tibi Kauntira assumed office;
 - (b) during the period of one year before the day on which the Council will stand dissolved under section 17A(1); or
 - (c) during the period of six months immediately following the rejection by the Council of a prior motion of no confidence in the Tibi Kauntira.
- (3) A motion of no confidence may only be moved by an elected member.
- (4) A motion of no confidence shall not be considered unless at least seven days' notice of the motion has been served on all elected members and both the Tibi Kauntira and the Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira are present when such motion is moved and considered.

17. Term of office

Subject to subsection (2) of section 15 of this Act, the term of office of a Tibi Kauntira or Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira shall ordinarily not exceed 3 years nor be less than 2 years from the date of his election; and unless he resigns or is disqualified such person shall be deemed to continue in office until his successor is elected.

²⁸ This section substituted for the original section 16 by s.8, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

²⁹ Original text of section 16 read as follows:

“16. Filling of vacancies of Tibi Kauntira and Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira

Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of Tibi Kauntira or Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira, an election to fill the vacancy shall be held at the next meeting of the council after the date on which the vacancy occurs. A person elected to fill such vacancy shall hold office until the date upon which the person in whose place he is elected would ordinarily have retired and he shall then retire but shall be eligible for re-election. In the temporary absence of both the Tibi Kauntira and Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira the council may elect one of its members to act as Tibi Kauntira during such temporary absence.”

³⁰ This section inserted by s.9, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

17A. Expiration of term of Council³¹

- (1) At the expiration of 4 years after the election, the council shall stand dissolved and fresh elections shall be conducted in accordance with the Elections Ordinance.
- (2) When the council stands dissolved, the Clerk may exercise the powers of the Council except the power to make byelaws, approve annual estimates, levy a rate, or borrowing or lending money.

18. Notification of names of Tibi Kauntira and Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira

The clerk to the council shall inform the Minister of the name and term of office of the persons elected to be Tibi Kauntira or Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira of the council and shall cause such information to be published at the council's headquarters, and in some prominent place in each electoral ward.

PART IV—MEETINGS AND PROCEEDINGS OF COUNCILS19. Number of meetings

A council shall meet at such times and at such places as the Tibi Kauntira thereof shall determine:

Provided that if a council fails to meet at least once in every quarter of a year it may be taken as just cause for suspension of the council under section 47.³²

20. Convening of meetings

- (1) The Tibi Kauntira of a council may call a meeting at any time either on his own motion or upon requisition of two thirds of the elected members of the council in consultation with the special member.³³
- (2) Subject to section 16A, the Tibi Kauntira or in his absence the Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira must call a meeting within seven days of the date of the requisition under subsection (1), or if both of them are absent by any one of those elected members or a special member presenting the requisition.³⁴

³¹ This section inserted by s.11, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

³² Amended by s.12, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting "once in every quarter of a year" for "twice in any 1 year"

³³ Amended by s.13(a), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting "two thirds of the elected members" for "one-third of the members", and inserting "in consultation with the special member"

³⁴ Amended by s.13(b), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, which substituted this for the original subsection, which read: "If the Tibi Kauntira of a council refuses to call a meeting of the council after a written requisition to do so signed by one-third of the members of the council has been presented to him or if, without so refusing, such Tibi Kauntira does not, within 2 days after such requisition has been presented to him call a meeting to take place within 3 weeks of the date of the requisition, the persons presenting the requisition may forthwith, on such refusal or on the expiration of 2 days, as the case may be, call a meeting of the council."

- (3) 7 days at least before the day of any meeting called under subsection (1) or subsection (2)—
- (a) notice of the time and place of the intended meeting shall be published at the office of the council and, where the meeting is called by elected members of the council, the notice shall be signed by those members and shall specify the business proposed to be transacted thereat;³⁵
 - (b) a summons to attend the meeting, signed by the clerk of the council shall be left at or sent by post to the usual place or abode of every member of the council and such summons shall, in the case of a meeting called by members of the council, state the business which they specified in the notice given by them as proposed for transaction thereat, and in the case of any other meeting, the business which is proposed by the Tibi Kauntira for the transaction thereat:

Provided that want of service of the summons on any member shall not affect the validity of a meeting.
- (4) No business shall be transacted at a meeting called by members of a council other than that specified by them in their notice relating thereto unless agreed to by resolution of a majority of the members present and voting thereon at the meeting.

21. Presiding at meetings

- (1) Subject to section 15(2), the Tibi Kauntira shall, if present, preside at meetings of the council.
- (2) If the Tibi Kauntira is absent from a meeting of the council the Kauoman-n-Tibi Kauntira if present or, in his absence, such member as the members of the council present shall choose, shall preside.

22. Quorum

No business shall be transacted at a meeting of a council unless at least one half of the elected members of the council are present thereat.³⁶

23. Meetings

- (1) Every meeting of a council shall, within the limits of available accommodation, be open to the public and to the duly accredited representatives of any newspapers:

Provided however that a council may at any time by resolution exclude the public or such representatives or one or the other of them.
- (2) The proceedings of any committee of a council, or a joint committee, shall not be open to the public or to the representatives of any newspapers unless the council or councils appointing the committee or joint committee resolve to admit the public and duly accredited representatives of any newspapers or one or the other of them.

³⁶ Amended by s.14, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting the word "elected" for the words "whole number of the"

24. Decision on questions

- (1) Subject to this Act and of the warrant establishing a council, all acts of a council and all questions coming or arising before a council shall be done and decided by a majority of the elected members present and voting thereon at a meeting of the council.³⁷
- (2) The Tibi Kauntira of a council shall have an original vote and in the event of an equality of votes, shall have and exercise a second or casting vote.
- (3) At the request of at least one-third of the elected members present at a meeting of a council the Tibi Kauntira shall order that the voting on any question before the council shall be conducted by secret ballot.³⁸

25. Breaches of order at meetings

- (1) At any meeting of a council, if a member of the council shows disregard for the authority of the Tibi Kauntira or abuses the standing orders of the council by persistently and wilfully obstructing the business of the council or otherwise, the Tibi Kauntira shall direct the attention of the meeting to the incident mentioning by name the person concerned and may suspend such person from the exercise of his functions as a member of the council for the remainder of the meeting.
- (2) In the case of grave disorder arising in any meeting of a council, the Tibi Kauntira may, if he thinks it necessary so to do, adjourn the meeting without question put or suspend any meeting for a time to be specified by him.
- (3) The person presiding at any meeting of a committee may, if he thinks it necessary so to do, exercise the like powers as are conferred upon a Tibi Kauntira in relation to a council by subsections (1) and (2).

26. Minutes

- (1) Minutes of the proceedings of every meeting of a council or of a committee shall be regularly entered in books kept for that purpose and shall be read and confirmed or amended, as the case may require, and signed by the person presiding at the same or next ensuing meeting of the council or committee, as the case may be, and any minute purporting to be so signed shall be received in evidence without further proof.
- (2) The names of members of a council or of a committee prescribed at a meeting of the council or committee as the case may be, shall be recorded in the minutes.
- (3) Until the contrary be proved, a meeting of a council or of a committee, in respect of the proceedings whereof a minute has been made and signed as provided in subsection (1), shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all members present at the meeting shall be deemed to have been qualified and, where the proceedings are proceedings of a committee, the committee shall be deemed to have been duly constituted and to have had power to deal with the matter referred to in the minutes.

³⁷ Amended by s.15(a), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, inserting the word "elected"

³⁸ Amended by s.15(b), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, inserting the word "elected"

27. Minutes to be open to inspection

The minutes of the proceedings of a council shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection and any person may obtain a copy thereof or an extract therefrom upon payment of such fee as may be specified by the council.

28. Vacancy, etc., not to invalidate proceedings

The proceedings of a council or committee shall not be invalidated by reason of any vacancy among its members or the want of qualification of any member.

29. Standing orders

- (1) Subject to this Act, a council may, with the approval of the Minister, make standing orders for regulation of its proceedings and business and may, subject to such approval, amend, vary or revoke such orders.³⁹
- (2) Such standing orders may provide for the payment of an annual honorarium to the Tibi Kauntira and Te Kauoman Tiibi Kauntira of the council and travelling and attendance allowances to them and other members of the council.⁴⁰

30. Pecuniary interest of members

If a member of a council or of any committee has any pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or proposed contract or other matter and is present at a meeting of the council or the committee at which the contract or other matter is the subject of consideration, he shall at the meeting disclose such interest and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of or vote on any question with respect to the contract or other matter and, if the Tibi Kauntira so directs, he shall withdraw from the meeting during such consideration or discussion:

Provided that this section shall not apply to an interest in a contract or other matter which a member of the council or committee may have as ratepayer or an inhabitant of the area.

31. Attendance of non-members

The Tibi Kauntira of a council may invite any person to attend and to speak upon any matter at any meeting of a council, but no such person shall vote upon any matter.

32. Appointment of committees

- (1) A council may appoint such committee as it may deem fit for any general or special purpose which, in the opinion of the council, would be better regulated or managed by means of a committee and may delegate to a committee so appointed, with or without restrictions or conditions as it thinks fit, any power or function without restrictions or conditions as it thinks fit, any power or function exercisable by the council, either with respect to the whole or any part of the area of authority of the council, except the power of making bye-laws, approving annual estimates, levying a rate or borrowing or lending money.

- (2) A council may concur with any one or more other councils in appointing a joint committee of such councils for any purpose in which they are jointly interested and may delegate to such committee, with or without restrictions or conditions as they think fit, any power or function of the councils relation⁴¹ to the purpose for which the joint committee is formed except the power of making bye-laws, approving annual estimates, levying a rate or borrowing or lending money.
- (3) The chairman and the number of members of a committee appointed under this section, their terms of reference, their term of office and the area within which the committee is to exercise its authority shall be specified by the council or councils, as the case may be, appointing the committee.
- (4) A committee appointed under this section may include persons who are not council members, or may be authorised by the council or councils, as the case may be, appointing the committee to co-opt additional members not being council members: Provided that at least two-thirds of the members of every such committee shall be council members.
- (5) No person shall be appointed to be or be co-opted as a member of a committee appointed under this section except with his own consent.
- (6) A committee appointed under this section may invite any person, including a council member who is not a member of the committee, to attend meetings and take part in the deliberations the committee, but no such person shall vote upon any matter at such meeting.

33. Special area committees

- (1) Subject to this Act, a council may appoint such town, village or area committees within the area of its authority as it may deem necessary or expedient and may delegate to a committee so appointed, with or without restrictions or conditions as it thinks fit, any power or function exercisable by the council with respect to the area of authority of the town, village or area committee, except the power of making bye-laws, approving annual estimates, levying a rate or borrowing or lending money.
- (2) The chairman and the number of members of a town, village or area committee appointed under subsection (1), their term of office and method of selection, and the area within which the committee is to exercise its authority shall be specified by the council.
- (3) A committee appointed under this section shall comprise five members, three of whom shall be elected members.⁴²

⁴² New subsection (3) inserted by s.17, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

34. Standing orders for committees

- (1) Subject to this Act, a council appointing a committee (including any town, village or area committee) and councils which concur in appointing a joint committee may make, amend, vary and revoke standing orders respecting the quorum, proceedings or place of meeting of the committee or joint committee. Subject to any such standing orders, the quorum, proceedings and place of meeting shall be such as the committee or joint committee may determine.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by subsection (1), standing orders made under this section shall provide—
 - (a) that all acts of a committee or joint committee shall be done and decided by a majority of members present and voting thereon at a meeting of such committee or joint committee; and
 - (b) that the chairman or other person presiding at a meeting of a committee or joint committee shall, in the event of an equality of votes, have and exercise a second or casting vote.
- (3) Standing orders made under this section shall not be inconsistent with the standing orders of the council concerned made under section 29.

35. Committees to report

Every committee or joint committee appointed under the provisions of this Part shall report its proceedings to the council or councils appointing such committee as soon as practicable.⁴³

PART V—FUNCTIONS OF COUNCILS

36. Duty to discharge functions

- (1) It shall be the duty of every council established under this Act to discharge the functions conferred by this or any other Act and generally to maintain order and good government within the area of its authority; and for these purposes a council may, within the limits of the functions so conferred, either by its own officers or by duly appointed agents do all such things as are necessary or desirable for the discharge of such functions.
- (2) Any function conferred upon a council shall be exercisable over all persons within the area of its authority save as is otherwise expressly provided in this Act or in any regulations or bye-laws made thereunder or in the warrant establishing the council.

37. Prevention of crime

It shall be the duty of every council to make byelaws preventing the commission of any offence within the area of the authority by any person.⁴⁴

⁴³ Amended by s.18, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, inserting the words "as soon as practicable"

⁴⁴ Amended by s.19, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting the words "make byelaws preventing" for the word "prevent"

38. Power to accept gifts

A council may accept, hold and administer any gift of property for any public purpose or for the benefit of the inhabitants of the area of its authority or any part thereof and may execute any works (including works of maintenance and improvement) incidental to or consequential on the exercise of the powers conferred by this section.

39. Fees

A council may charge fees for any service or facility provided by the council or for any licence or permit issued by such council under the provisions of this Act or of any regulations or bye-laws made thereunder.

40. Remission of fees, etc.

A council may for good cause authorise the remission in whole or in part of any fees or other charges imposed under the provisions of this Act or any regulations or bye-laws made thereunder.

41. Power to contract

A council may enter into any contract necessary for the discharge of any of its functions under this or any other Act.

42. Insurance

43. Provision of buildings by councils

- (1) A council may—
 - (a) build, acquire, provide or hire and furnish buildings within the area of its authority to be used for the purpose of transacting the business of the council and for public meetings and assemblies; or
 - (b) combine with any other council for the purpose of building, acquiring, providing or hiring and furnishing any such buildings; or
 - (c) contribute towards the expenses incurred by any other council in building, acquiring, providing or hiring and furnishing any building within the area of the authority of such council suitable for use for any of the aforesaid purposes.
- (2) Subject to section 55, A council may build, provide or hire and maintain to a reasonable standard or habitable condition quarters or houses for any officer or employee of—
 - (a) the council; and

- (b) the Government posted for the time being to work within the area of authority of the council.⁴⁵

44. Acquisition of and dealings in land

- (1) A council may, for the purpose of any of its functions under this Act or any other Acts, by agreement acquire, whether by way of purchase, lease, gift or exchange, any land situate within or without the area of its authority, whether such land is immediately required or not:
- Provided that a council shall not acquire land outside the area of its authority without the prior approval of the Minister.
- (2) Where any land is required by a council for the purpose of any of its functions and by reason of disputes or doubts as to the ownership of the land required or inability of the parties to agree the terms or for any other cause the acquisition of the land is being hindered, the Minister responsible for land matters may, on the application of the council concerned and on being satisfied that the purpose for which the land is required is of public benefit or importance, declare the land to be acquired for a public purpose under the provisions of the State Acquisition of Lands Ordinance, and direct the transfer of such land to the council on payment by the council of all expenses incurred and compensation paid in respect of the acquisition of such land.⁴⁶
- (3) Any land acquired under subsection (1) may, until it is required for the purpose for which it was acquired, be held and used for the purpose of any of the functions of the council.
- (4) Any land belonging to a council and not required for the purpose for which it was acquired may be appropriated for any other purpose, except that in the case of land compulsorily acquired under subsection (2) the consent of the Minister responsible for land matters shall be required.⁴⁷
- (5) The Minister responsible for land matters may vest on such terms as he may deem just any State land in a council where in the opinion of the Minister it appears desirable to do so to enable the council to carry out its functions, and a council shall surrender the same to the Minister at any time when called upon to do so:
- Provided that a council shall receive reasonable compensation for any improvements affected by it to any State land so surrendered.⁴⁸
- (6) In exercising his powers under this Act, the Minister responsible for land matters is required to consider other suitable locations.⁴⁹

45. Functions

- (1) A warrant establishing a council may provide that, subject to such limitations and conditions as may be specified therein, a council either shall perform or may perform all, any or any part of the functions listed in the Schedule.
- (2) The Minister, acting in accordance with the advice of Cabinet may by order amend the Schedule.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to confer on any council authority to perform any act which would constitute a contravention of the terms of any Act.

46. Powers of public officer

The Minister may by order direct that specified public officers, or categories of public officers, shall be deemed to be officers of any council for the purposes of giving effect to and enforcing any bye-laws made by such council.

47. Power to enforce functions of councils

- (1) If the Cabinet is satisfied that any council has made default in the performance of any function conferred or imposed upon it by or under this Act or any other Act for the time being in force, the Minister, acting in accordance with the advice of Cabinet, may make an order declaring the council to be in default and may, by the same or any other order—
 - (a) for the purpose of removing the default direct the council to perform such of its functions in such manner and within such time or times as may be specified in the order; or
 - (b) transfer to such person or body as the Minister, acting in accordance with the advice of Cabinet, may deem fit such of the functions of the council in default as may be specified in the order.
- (2) If a council in respect of which an order has been made under subsection (1)(a) fails to comply with any requirement thereof within the time limited thereby for compliance with that requirement, the Minister, acting in accordance with the advice of Cabinet, may make an order under subsection (1)(b).
- (3) Where an order has been made under subsection (1)(b), the Minister, acting in accordance with the advice of Cabinet, may by the same or any other order, dissolve the council or suspend the council for such time as he may think fit from the performance of such of its functions as may be specified in such order.

48. Expenses in respect of transferred functions

Where any functions of a council are transferred to any person or body under the provisions of section 47(1)(b), the expenses incurred by such person or body in discharging those functions shall be a debt due from the Republic in default to such person or body, as the case may be.⁵⁰

⁵⁰ Amended by s.22, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting "Republic" for "council"

49. Powers in emergency

- (1) In the event of any sudden disaster or emergency endangering the life or property of any persons within the area of authority of a council, the Tibi Kauntira shall make such decisions and take such steps as may be reasonably necessary to deal with the situation and may so act without prior reference to the council. In any such event, the Tibi Kauntira shall immediately report the circumstances to the Minister and to the council concerned in accordance with an action plan of the council dealing with disasters and emergencies.⁵¹
- (2) In any such event, the Tiibi Kauntira shall immediately report the circumstances to the Minister and to the council concerned and the Minister shall submit the report of the Tiibi Kauntira to the Minister responsible for disaster management for funding.⁵²

PART VI—BYE-LAWS

50. Bye-laws

- (1) A council may from time to time make and having made amend, vary or cancel bye-laws, having the force of law in the area of authority of the council, for the carrying into effect and for the purposes of any function conferred upon it by virtue of this Act or any other Ordinance and may in such bye-laws specify a fine not exceeding $10,000 or, in default of payment, imprisonment not exceeding 2 years for any breach of any such bye-laws and, in the case of a continuing offence, a further penalty not exceeding $2,000 for each day on which the offence is continued after written notice of the offence has been served on the offender.⁵³
- (2) Such bye-laws may further or provide that, in addition to any penalty specified in subsection (1), any expense incurred by the council in consequence of any breach of the bye-laws or in the execution of any work directed by any bye-law to be executed by any person and not executed by such person shall be paid by the person committing such breach or failing to execute such work and shall be recoverable as a civil debt.
- (3) Bye-laws may make provision for the payment of such fees or charges as shall to the council seem fit:

Provided that, if a council shall make bye-laws relating to the licensing of any occupation, trade, business or industry within the area of its authority, no person shall be required to take out a licence or to pay any licence fee for a licence entitling him to follow or exercise such occupation, trade, business or industry if such occupation, trade, business or industry is also required to be licensed under the provisions of any Ordinance for the time being in force other than the Foreign Investment Act 1985.⁵⁴

⁵² This subsection inserted by s.23(b), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

⁵³ Amended by s.24(a), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting "$10,000" for "$100", "2 years" for "6 weeks", and "$2000" for "$2"

- (4) Any bye-law made by a council under this section shall be read and construed subject to the provisions of this Act and of any other law for the time being in force in Kiribati:

Provided that, where a bye-law makes provision for any matter for which provision is made in any other Ordinance for the time being in force, such bye-law shall not be deemed to be invalid unless there be any conflict between the provisions of such bye-law and such Ordinance, in which event the provisions of the Ordinance shall be prevail;

Further provided that nothing in the Laws of Kiribati Act 1989 affects any power of a council to amend customary law when making bye-laws.⁵⁵

- (5) Any bye-law made under this Act may require acts or things to be performed or done to the satisfaction of a specified person and may empower that specified person to issue orders to any other person requiring acts or things to be performed or done, imposing conditions and prescribing periods and dates upon, within or before which such acts or things shall be performed or done or such conditions shall be fulfilled.⁵⁶
- (6) Any bye-law made under this Act may confer upon a council and any of its officers and employees specified in such bye-law such powers of inspection and inquiry and such power to execute any work as may be reasonably necessary for the proper carrying out or enforcement of such bye-law.
- (7) Any bye-law may specify that it shall apply to the whole or any part of the area of authority of the council or to all or any class of persons in such area and, failing such specification, a bye-law shall be deemed to apply to all parts of the area of the authority of the council and to all persons therein.

51. Method of making bye-laws

- (1) Bye-laws shall be made under the common seal of the council and shall be signed by the Tibi Kauntira after formal resolution of the council, the date of which shall be recorded in the bye-law.
- (2) No council shall proceed to consider any proposed bye-law or amendment of any bye-law after its first reading until the next or subsequent meeting unless such bye-law is certified as urgent by the majority of all the members of the council present and voting.
- (3) When proposing a bye-law or amendment of a bye-law as the case may be, the Council shall cause such bye-law or amendment to be publicised widely, debated and discussed at public meetings of persons resident within the area of authority of the council.⁵⁷

⁵⁴ Amended by s.6, Foreign Investment (Amendment) Act 1997, inserting "other than the Foreign Investment Act 1985"

⁵⁶ Amended by s.24(b), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting "that" for "a" between "empower" and "specified"

⁵⁷ Amended by s.25(a), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, which substituted this for the original subsection, which read: "The proposed bye-law or amendment of a bye-law as the case may be referred

- (4) A bye-law made or amended under this Act shall not have effect unless and until approved by the Minister who, before approving, may amend the same. The Minister may approve or refuse to approve giving reasons for such refusal any bye-law and may in approving determine the date on which the bye-law is to come into operation.⁵⁸
- (5) The Minister may, in the public interest after having given to a council reasonable notice and having considered the representations, if any, of the council thereon, make or amend any bye-law which such council is empowered by this Act to make, or cancel any bye-law made by such council.⁵⁹

52. Publication

- (1) A copy of every bye-law when approved by the Minister shall be deposited at the office of the council by which the bye-law was made and shall at all reasonable times be open to public inspection without payment; and a copy thereof shall, on application, be furnished to any person on payment of such sum as the council may determine.
- (2) Every bye-law approved under this Act shall be published by exhibiting publicly a copy of it, and a translation thereof approved by the Minister, at the office of the council by which the bye-law was made and shall come into operation on the date of such publication, or on such later date as may be specified, and the council may give such other notice as it thinks requisite for bringing it to the attention of the person affected thereby.⁶⁰

53. Evidence of bye-laws

A copy of a bye-law purporting to be made by a council, upon which is endorsed a certificate purporting to be signed by the Tibi Kauntira or such other office of the council authorised in that behalf, stating—

- (a) that the bye-law was made and published by the council in the prescribed manner;
- (b) that the copy is a true copy of the bye-law; and
- (c) that on a specified date the bye-law was duly approved by the Minister and came into operation on a specified date, shall be admitted in evidence in any court without further proof, and such certificate shall be evidence of the facts stated therein without further proof and without proof of the hand-writing or official position of the person purporting to sign the certificate.

to in subsection (2) of this section shall be publicised widely, debated and discussed at public meetings of persons resident within the area of authority of the council proposing or causing the making or amendment of such bye-law as the case may be."

⁵⁸ Amended by s.25(b), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, inserting the words "giving reasons for such refusal"

⁵⁹ Amended by s.25(c), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting "in the public interest" for "at any time"

⁶⁰ Amended by s.26, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, repealing the words "in the vernacular" from between "thereof" and "approved"

PART VII—FINANCIAL PROVISIONS AND AUDIT

61. Deposit and advance accounts

A council may by resolution make advances and operate deposit and suspense accounts.

62. Accounts to be kept

Every council shall keep proper accounts and other records in relation thereto and immediately after the end of such financial year shall cause its accounts for that year to be brought to a balance and a balance sheet to be prepared with respect thereto, together with a statement or abstract of such accounts.

63. Financial instructions

The Minister, acting in accordance with the advice of Cabinet shall issue written instructions, to be called Financial Instructions, not inconsistent with this Act, for—

- (a) regulating and for controlling the making of receipts and payments of council;
- (b) regulating and controlling operation of the bank accounts of Councils;
- (c) providing for abandonment of claims and write offs;
- (d) regulating the tendering of services required by the Council;
- (e) regulating the purchase and safekeeping of stores and supplies; and
- (f) the better control and management of the financial business of councils, and such instructions may be issued either generally or with respect to the councils in any particular area and shall be observed and obeyed by the council or councils with respect to which such instructions have been issued.⁶²

64. Estimates of councils

- (1) Every council shall, not less than 2 months before the expiry of each financial year, pass detailed estimates of revenue and expenditure of the council for the next financial year.
- (2) Such estimates shall be passed by formal resolution at a meeting of the council specially convened for the purpose and shall be submitted to the Minister for approval as soon as possible thereafter.
- (3) The Minister may either approve or disapprove such estimates as a whole or disapprove, amend or reserve any item or items contained therein and shall notify the council accordingly:

Provided that, if such notification is not received by the council before the commencement of the financial year for which such estimate is prepared, the council may incur expenditure on recurrent heads of expenditure in accordance with the approved estimates for the previous year.

- (4) The Minister may by Financial Instructions issued under section 63 of this Act and imposing such conditions as he deems fit, empower any council to appropriate supplementary sums if in respect of any financial year it is found by any such Council that expenditure for any specified purpose is desirable and no or insufficient provision therefor has been made in the estimates for such year [or to vary the sum assigned to any purpose within any head of expenditure shown in the estimate of expenditure for any financial year or to provide for a new purpose within such head by means of a Virement Warrant which shall be issued, made and signed by the Tibi Kauntira after formal resolution of the council the date of which shall be recorded in the warrant, that there shall be applied in aid of any purpose for which the sum assigned may be deficient or in aid of any new purpose a further sum out of any surplus arising on any sum assigned to any purpose within the same head]⁶³.
- (5) No council shall collect revenue or incur expenditure which has not been approved in accordance with this Act except with the sanction of the Minister; and any council member, officer or servant who has applied or connived at or concurred in the collection or application of moneys for purposes which have not been lawfully approved shall be liable to be surcharged and to account for such moneys.

⁶² Amended by s.28, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting this for the original section, which read: "The Minister acting in accordance with the advice of Cabinet shall issue written instructions (to be called Financial Instructions) not inconsistent with this Act, for regulating and for controlling the making of receipts and payments of councils, for regulating and controlling operation of the bank accounts of councils and for the better control and management of the financial business of councils; and such instructions may be issued either generally or with respect to any particular council or with respect to the councils in any particular area and shall be observed and obeyed by the council or councils with respect to which such instructions have been issued."

⁶³ Words in square brackets inserted by s.2, Local Government (Amendment) Act 1982

- (6) The annual estimates and all supplementary estimates shall be submitted in such form and manner and shall contain such information as may be specified in Financial Instructions issued under section 63.

65. Joint funds

A joint committee appointed under section 32(2) may, with the approval of and subject to any conditions imposed by the councils appointing the committee, operate a fund in accordance with this Part and to such extent such committee shall be deemed to be a council.

66. Access to records of councils

The Minister may authorise any person to have access to the records of any council; and any person so authorised shall at all reasonable times have access to and be entitled to inspect all books, accounts and records of the council and may advise the council thereon and submit reports to the Minister in connection therewith.

67. Audit of accounts

The powers conferred and the duties imposed by this Part shall be in addition to and shall in no way derogate from the powers conferred and the duties imposed by the Public Finance (Control and Audit) Ordinance.

68. Transmission of reports, etc.

The Auditor General shall transmit to the Minister and to the Minister responsible for finance together with every report prepared by him on the examination and audit of the accounts kept by a council the annual statement or abstract of such accounts prepared under section 62 and shall transmit a copy of every report to the council and for submission to the Maneaba ni Maungatabu for information.⁶⁴

69. Powers and duties of Auditor General⁶⁵

- (1) The Auditor General at every audit held by him may—
- (a) disallow any item of expenditure which is unlawful or contrary to law;⁶⁶
 - (b) surcharge the amount of any expenditure disallowed upon the person responsible for incurring or authorising the expenditure;
 - (c) surcharge any sum which has not been duly brought into account upon the person by whom that sum ought to have been brought into account;
 - (d) surcharge the amount of any loss or deficiency upon any person by whose negligence or misconduct the loss or deficiency has been incurred.⁶⁷

- (2) It shall be the duty of the Auditor General—
- (a) to certify the amount due from any person upon whom he has made a surcharge; and
 - (b) to certify at the conclusion of the audit his allowance of the accounts, subject to any disallowances or surcharges which he may have made.

70. Special relief for officers and employees⁶⁸

Notwithstanding section 69, no liability to surcharge shall be incurred by an officer or employee⁶⁹ of the council who can prove to the satisfaction of the Auditor General⁷⁰ that he acted in pursuance of and in accordance with the terms of a resolution of the council or a committee duly appointed by the council or on instructions of any officer of the council to whom he is subordinate.

71. Auditor General may take evidence⁷¹

- (1) For the purposes of any examination under this Part the Auditor General or other person duly authorised by him under section 30(1) of the Public Finance (Control and Audit) Ordinance may take evidence and examine witnesses upon oath or affirmation (which oath or affirmation the Auditor General or other person so authorised is hereby empowered to administer) and may, by summons under his hand, require all such persons as he may think fit to appear personally before him at a time and place to be stated in such summons and to produce all such books and papers, including the minutes of the proceedings of the council or of any committee thereof, as he may consider necessary for such examination:
- (2) No person shall be bound to incriminate himself and every witness shall in respect of any evidence given by him before the Auditor General or other person so authorised be entitled to the same privileges to which he would have been entitled if giving evidence before a court.⁷²
- (3) The costs associated with attending the audit examination and proceedings connected thereto shall be borne by the Republic.⁷³
- (4)⁷⁴ Any person who, when so required, without reasonable excuse—
 - (a) neglects or refuses to comply with the terms of such summons; or
 - (b) having appeared, refuses to be examined on oath or affirmation or to take such oath or affirmation; or shall be liable for every such neglect or refused⁷⁵, to a fine of $1000, or in default of payment, to imprisonment for 6 months.⁷⁶

72. Payment of sums certified to be due

Every sum certified by the Auditor General⁷⁷ to be due from any person shall be paid by that person to the council concerned within 60 days after it has been so certified or, if an appeal with respect to that sum has been made, within 30 days after the appeal is finally disposed of or abandoned or fails by reason of the non-prosecution thereof.

73. Recovery of sums certified to be due

- (1) Any sum which is certified by the Auditor General to be due and has become payable shall, on complaint made by the council be recoverable by the council as a civil debt.
- (2) In any proceedings for the recovery of such a sum a certificate signed by the Auditor General shall be conclusive evidence of the facts certified and a certificate signed by the Tibi Kauntira of the council concerned or other officer whose duty it is to keep the accounts that the sum certified to be has not been paid to him shall be conclusive evidence of non-payment, unless it is proved that the sum certified to be due has been paid since the date of the certificate.
- (3) Unless the contrary is proved, a certificate purporting to be signed by the Auditor General or the Tibi Kauntira of the council or other officer whose duty it is to keep the accounts shall be deemed to have been signed by the Auditor General, Tibi Kauntira or other officer, as the case may be.⁷⁸

74. Appeals against decisions of Auditor General

- (1) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Auditor General on any matter with respect to which he made an objection at the audit and any person aggrieved by a disallowance or surcharge made by the Auditor General may appeal to a magistrates' court, unless such decision, disallowance or surcharge relates to an amount exceeding $3,000 in which case an appeal shall be to the High Court:

Provided that no appeal shall be allowed unless, within 60 days of the date of decision or the certificate of disallowance or surcharge of the Auditor General, as the case maybe, the appellant serves upon the Auditor General a notice of appeal and files such appeal in the magistrates' court or the High Court, as the case may be, in conformity with any rules of court relating thereto.

- (2) A magistrates' court or the High Court on such appeal shall have power to confirm, vary or quash the decision of the Auditor General and to remit the case to the Auditor General with such directions as it thinks fit for giving effect to the decision on appeal; and, if the decision of the Auditor General is quashed or is varied so as to reduce the amount of surcharge to $200 or less, the appellant shall not be subject by reason of the surcharge to the disqualification imposed by section 9 or section 11.⁷⁹

75. Publication of statement of accounts and report of Auditor General

Every council shall, within 6 months of the receipt of the Auditor General's report, at its own offices publish—

- (a) the annual balance sheet or statement or abstract of accounts prepared under section 62; and
- (b) any report on such accounts and statement or abstract transmitted by the Auditor General under section 68.⁸⁰

PART VIII—RATES

76. Rating authority

For the purposes of this Act every council shall be the rating authority for the area of its authority and, subject to section 47⁸¹ or except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Act or any other Ordinance, no authority other than the council shall have power to make or levy any rate in the area of authority of such council, notwithstanding any customary law to the contrary.

77. Types of rate

- (1) Subject to the approval of the Minister and to any regulations made under section 79, a council may make and levy annually general rates based on any one or more of the following systems, that is to say—
- (a) a rate, which may be referred to the basic rate, at a uniform or graduated amount per capita on any person or persons, of or above the age of 18 years being persons resident within the area of its authority;
 - (b) a rate at a uniform amount per dollar on the assessed value of immovable property situated within the area of its authority or any part of such area;
 - (c) a rate assessed on the possessions or any category of possessions of persons within the area of its authority or any part of such area.
- (2) In addition to making and levying a general rate under subsection (1) a council may, subject to the approval of the Minister and to any regulations made under section 79, make and levy a rate which may be referred to as a special rate, at a uniform or graduated amount per capita on any person or class or⁸² person resident within the area of its authority or any part of such area in order to provide for some specific purpose within such area or any part of such area; and may make and levy a rate, which may be referred to as a water rate.

78. Duty to make rates

If in any financial year, the Council is required to—

- (a) cover expenditure previously incurred;
- (b) meet contingencies;
- (c) defray any expenditure not yet defrayed; and
- (d) make supplementary appropriation to cover any unforeseen expenditure or offset any expenditure already incurred without provision,

the Council shall by formal resolution make and levy one or more of the rates specified in section 77(1) as will be sufficient to provide for such purposes.⁸³

79. Rating regulations

Subject to section 80, the Council with the approval of the Minister may make regulations providing generally for the making and levying of rates by the council on persons resident or temporarily resident in the area of authority of such council and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, providing in particular for—

- (a) the basis and incidence of any rate to be levied under section 77;
- (b) the notice to be given by a council of its intention to make and levy a rate;
- (c) the procedure for the appointment of assessment committees appointed under section 91 and the procedure, powers and duties of such committees;
- (d) the method of assessment of property or possessions for the purposes of any rate to be levied under this Act;
- (e) the hearing of appeals against any such assessment;
- (f) the preparation of rating rolls and the rendering of returns by or the registration of persons liable to pay any rate;
- (g) the dates and places for the payment of any rate;
- (h) to whom payment shall be made;
- (i) the exemption of any category of persons from liability to pay the whole or any part of any rate;

⁸² Quaere: perhaps this should be 'of'

⁸³ Amended by s.35, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting this for the original section, which read: "Unless a formal resolution to refrain from so doing shall have been passed by the council, every council shall make and levy one or more of the rates specified in section 77(1), as will be sufficient to provide for such part of the total estimated expenditure to be incurred by the council during the period in respect of which the rate is made as is to be met out of moneys raised by rates, together with such additional amount as is, in the opinion of the council, required to cover expenditure previously incurred or to meet contingencies or to defray any expenditure which may fail to be defrayed before the date on which the money to be received in respect of the next subsequent rate will become available."

- (j) the imposition of pecuniary penalties for non-payment or late payment of any rate.

80. Basic rate

- (1) Notwithstanding any regulations made under section 79, this section shall apply to the making, levying and payment of a basic rate imposed under section 77(1)(a).
- (2) (a) Any person or⁸⁴ or above the age of 21 years⁸⁵ on the 1st January in every year or 1 month after the publication by the Council of a notice given under regulations made hereunder of the basic rate to be levied, whichever is the later, become⁸⁶ liable, unless generally or specifically exempted, to pay the basic rate (if any) imposed by the council in the area of authority of which he is a person resident on such 1st January.
- (b) Any person who, being so liable, fails to pay such basic rate on or before the 30th June in the year to which the rate relates or 6 months after the publication of the notice referred to in paragraph (a), whichever is the later, shall become become liable in addition, unless generally or specifically exempted, to pay a penalty of half the amount of the basic rate⁸⁷.
- (3) (a) Notwithstanding subsection (2), any person temporarily resident in the area of authority of a council which has imposed a basic rate may, in lieu of paying the basic rate of the council to which he is liable under subsection (2)(a), pay the basic rate of the council in the area of authority of which he is temporarily resident.⁸⁸
- (b) Any person temporarily resident in the area of authority of a council shall be liable to pay the basic rate unless a receipt of payment is presented as proof of payment to the council in the area of authority of which such person is a resident.^{89 90}

⁸⁹ Amended by s.36(d), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting this for the original paragraph, which read: "Any person temporarily resident in the area of authority of a council who, being liable to pay, fails on or before the 30th June or 6 months after the publication of the notice referred to in subsection (2)(a), whichever is the later, to pay either the basic rate to which he is liable under subsection (2)(a) or the basic rate of the council in the area of authority of which he is temporarily resident under paragraph (a) of this subsection, shall become liable, unless generally or specifically exempted, to pay the basic rate of the council in the area of authority of which he is temporarily resident at any subsequent date together with any penalty accruing thereon; and such council shall remit the rate less any penalty accruing thereon (which may be retained by such council) to the council to which the basic rate was due and payable under subsection (2)(a)."

⁹⁰ Subsection (4) (which read: "Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, a person visiting Kiribati for a period of less than 6 months shall not be liable to pay a basic rate.") repealed by s.36(e), Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006

81. Payment of rates

- (1)
 - (a) Subject to any regulations made under section 79, it shall be the duty of every person liable to pay any rate to a council to pay the amount of such rate to a rate collector or other person duly appointed or authorised by the council concerned to collect and receive the same at such time and at such place as may from time to time be specified by the council.
 - (b) If no person has been appointed or authorised to collect and receive rates, the payment of rates shall be made to the clerk to the council.
 - (c) If no time nor place for payment shall have been specified the time shall be deemed to be on or before the 30th April in every year and the place shall be deemed to be the usual place of office of the clerk to the council.
- (2) For the purposes of any proceedings for the recovery of any rate imposed under this Act, if any question arises as to whether or not a person is under a specified age, or resides in the area of authority of any particular council, or has or has not any income of any particular amount, the burden of proving that he is under such age, or does not so reside, or has no such income shall lie upon the person alleging the same.

82. Exemptions from and remissions of rates

- (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, if any person, who would otherwise be liable for payment of a basic rate to any council, produces to the executive officer to such council or to a rate collector appointed by such council a valid receipt issued by or on behalf of any other council in evidence of the payment by him of a basic rate levied by such other council for the current year, being a basic rate which he was liable to pay under this Act, he shall be deemed not to be liable for payment of the basic rate for such year levied by such first-mentioned council.
- (2) The following tenements shall be exempt from assessment and rating under this Act—
 - (a) lands and buildings appropriated exclusively for the purpose of public worship;
 - (b) cemeteries and burial grounds;
 - (c) charitable and educational institutions; and
 - (d) any other immovable property specifically or generally exempted by the Minister by order;
 - (e) lands and buildings belonging to the council and the Republic.⁹¹
- (3) A council may reduce or remit payment of any rate on account of the hardship⁹² of any person liable to the payment thereof or for any other good reason. In this section, "hardship" means the inability to pay basic rate due to a physical and mental disability, old age, single mother or such other reason as the council may deem just.⁹³

- (4) Subject to any regulations made under section 79 a council may exempt women from the liability to pay any rate.

83. Claim for amount of rate

If any person fails to pay any rate for which he is liable on or before the date on which it is payable, the council concerned may recover the same as a civil debt together with such costs and such penalty as may be prescribed under this Act or any regulations made thereunder:

Provided that no demand shall be made for any rate or penalty nor shall any proceedings for the recovery thereof be commenced more than 3 years after the date on which such rate became due and payable.

84. Evidence of rate

In any proceedings to recover a rate levied under this Act the rate books and other records of the council concerned and all certified copies of entries made therein purporting to be signed by the Tibi Kauntira of the council shall, upon production thereof, be prima facie evidence of such rate and of the matters stated therein without further evidence that the requirements of this Act have been complied with:

Provided that it shall be competent for any person proceeded against to offer evidence to prove the contrary.

85. Penalty for refusal to pay rates and wilful misrepresentation

- (1) Any person who, without lawful justification or excuse refuses or wilfully neglects to pay any rate payable by him under the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $1000 or to imprisonment for 6 months.⁹⁴
- (2) Any person who wilfully misrepresents in any way his rateable capacity shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $1000 or to imprisonment for 6 months.⁹⁵
- (3) The conviction of any person of an offence under subsection (1) shall not affect, bar, prejudice or limit the power to bring any civil proceedings for the recovery of any rate under section 83; and a person so convicted shall remain liable for the payment of such rate notwithstanding that he has paid any fine or served any sentence imposed upon such conviction; nor shall such conviction affect, bar, prejudice or limit the power to lay a further charge under subsection (1) for a separate offence of refusal or wilful neglect to pay such rate subsequent to the date of such conviction.

86. Penalty for inciting a person to refuse to pay rates

Any person who, without lawful justification or excuse incites any person to refuse to pay any rate payable by him under the provisions of this Act or who incites or assists any person to misrepresent in any way his or any other person's rateable capacity shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $2000 and to imprisonment for 12 months.⁹⁶

87. Penalty for unauthorised collection of rates

Any person who—

- (a) not being authorised under this Act or by the council concerned so to do, collects or attempts to collect any rate imposed under this Act; or
- (b) collects or attempts to collect any rate other than a rate prescribed in this Act or authorised by any other Ordinance, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $2000 and to imprisonment for 1 year.⁹⁷

88. Duty to give information

- (1) Any person who may be required so to do shall give all such information as may reasonably be required of him by any council, rate collector or assessment committee for the purpose of obtaining information for the assessment or collection of a rate.
- (2) Any person having been required to give information under subsection (1) who wilfully misleads or attempts to mislead any council, rate collector or assessment committee or their agents on any matter connected with the collection of a rate shall be liable to a fine of $1000 or, in default of payment, to imprisonment for 6 months.⁹⁸
- (3) Any person having been required to give information under subsection (1) who refuses or wilfully neglects to give such information shall be liable to a fine of $1000⁹⁹ or, in default of payment, to imprisonment for 6 months.

89. Rate collectors and duties

- (1) A council may in writing appoint any suitable person to be a rate collector in respect of any specified area within the council's area of authority.
- (2) It shall be the duty of every rate collector—
 - (a) to furnish orally or in writing to the council concerned a nominal roll of all rateable persons or immovable property or possessions¹⁰⁰, as the case may be, in the area for which he has been appointed;

- (b) to collect and receive from each person liable for the payment of rates in the area to which he has been appointed the rates payable by each such person;
- (c) to pay all amounts so collected to the council concerned; and
- (d) to report to the council concerned the name of any person who has failed to pay the amount due from him for rates.

90. Offences by rate collectors

Any rate collector who—

- (a) fails to deposit with the council concerned any sum of money collected by him as rates; or
- (b) knowingly demands from any person an amount in excess of the duly assessed rates; or
- (c) knowingly or recklessly renders false returns, whether orally or in writing, of the number of ratepayers or the amounts of rates collected or received by him; or
- (d) wilfully fails to carry out any duty imposed upon him as a rate collector by section 89(2), shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $2000 or to imprisonment for 12 months.¹⁰¹

91. Assessment committees

A council may appoint such assessment committee or committees as it thinks fit for the purpose of assessing the liability of any person or persons for payment of any rate levied or to be levied under the provisions of this Act.

92. Legal proceedings

Proceedings for the recovery of any rate or penalty under this Part may, without prejudice to the right of any other person or authority to institute criminal proceedings, be taken by the Tibi Kauntira of the council responsible for the collection of the rate or by any other person duly appointed by him in that behalf.

PART IX—OFFICERS AND STAFF, ETC.

93. Executive officers of councils

The Minister after consultation with the council concerned may appoint from among public officers or employees or former or retired suitably qualified public servants one or more such officers or employees to each council and the sole or senior executive officer to any council shall be called the clerk to the council.¹⁰²

¹⁰¹ Amended by s.43, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, substituting “not exceeding $2000” for “of $200 and”

¹⁰² Amended by s.44, Local Government (Amendment) Act 2006, inserting “or former or retired suitably qualified public servants”

94. Other staff

- (1) The Minister after consultation with the council concerned may appoint from among public officers or employees a treasurer to any council who shall be called the council treasurer.
- (2) Subject to any instructions under section 101, a council may appoint such other officers in addition to those appointed by the Minister under this section and employ such other persons as it shall think necessary for the efficient discharge of its functions and may, subject as aforesaid, dismiss any officer so appointed or other person so employed.
- (3) A council may, subject to any instructions as aforesaid, pay to any officer appointed or other person employed under this section such reasonable remuneration as it may determine:

Provided that no council shall pay any remuneration to any such officer or other person whose remuneration is paid by the Government.

95. Joint appointments and employment by councils

A council may agree with any one or more councils on the joint employment of any staff or the appointment of any officer.

96. Interest of officer in contract

Any officer or employee of a council who is in any wise concerned or interested directly or indirectly by himself or his partner (otherwise than as a minority shareholder in a company) in any contract or work made with or executed for the council shall forthwith declare such concern or interest to the council:

Provided that this section shall not apply to an interest in a contract or other work which an officer or employee of a council may have as a ratepayer or inhabitant of the area with special skills or qualification for a particular work or job.¹⁰³

97. Appointment of seconded public officers

Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Part a council may, with the approval of the Minister, appoint to any office in its service a public officer or employee seconded to the service of the council for that purpose, for such period and on such terms and conditions as the Minister may approve.¹⁰⁴

98. Security may be demanded of officers

A council may, in the case of an officer or person, other than a public officer appointed under section 97, in its employment, whether under this Act or any other Ordinance and whether appointed or employed jointly with another council or not, or, in the case of a person not in its employment but who is likely to be entrusted with the custody or control
